Paula Taylor is the associate pastor of discipleship at Solana Beach Presbyterian Church in California. She has a passion for helping people find their true identity in Christ and live and lead out of the overflow of a soul connected to God.

She has developed church wide strategies for small groups and programs like SHAPE (Spiritual Gifts, Heart, Abilities, Personality, and Experience), which is an assessment that helps individuals discover their best place of service and learn more about the role they play in God's story.

Paula and her husband Bill have been married for 43 years, taking great delight in their two daughters and three grandchildren.
