The banners hanging on the Sanctuary walls contain images that point to the historical events of Lent and Holy Week. The initials INRI (Latin: Iēsus Nazarēnus, Rēx Iūdæōrum) represent the Latin inscription, which in English translates to Jesus the Nazarene, King of the Jews, and John 19:20 states this was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek during the crucifixion of Jesus. Thank you to the Visual Arts Team: Rachel Foster, Misty Soderstrom, Jenni Nolan, Joshua Nieman, and Tim Cope. If you would like to join our team please contact Don Nieman. ### Building for God's Kingdom

Matthew 6:19-24

Icebreaker:

Growing up, did your family give to church or other charitable causes? If so, how did their giving impact you?

1. Matthew 6 is in the middle of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount. In Matthew 6, Jesus teaches about giving, praying, and fasting. What does it say about generosity that it is included right in the middle of Jesus' most famous teaching?
2. How would you describe the difference between storing up treasures on earth and storing up treasures in heaven?
3. If others were to view your life, what would they say your treasure is?
4. What is the connection between the eye and the body? What does it mean to have good eyes? How can having good eyes affect your generosity?
5. Jesus is very specific in that no one can serve both God and money. A person will be devoted to one and despise the other. Does this distinction seem harsh to you? How should it make us feel about money?
6. How have you seen money used in such a way that others knew they were important and that they mattered?
7. What comes to mind when you read this quote from martyred missionary Jim Elliott, "He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain that which he cannot lose"?

prayer requests

- > Pray for groups of ZPCers traveling in Israel and serving in Spain.
- > Pray for the guests and team of the Women's Great Banquet in Rio Preto, Brazil. May they feel the presence of God as they join in fellowship and worship.

Stay tuned next week for updated financials.
