

Icebreaker: Now that Memorial Day is almost here, what is the thing you are most excited about this summer?

From last week: What are things in your life that cause you to be more envious or less; more slanderous or less? Examples might be Instagram, Facebook, a favorite television show, or a friend who likes to gossip. Challenge yourself to take a Sabbath from the thing that causes you to be envious or talk about others negatively. How did that go?

Read this week's scripture and discuss:

1. At the end of James 4, is James saying we should not plan for the future? If not, what is he trying to say? In making plans, what problem surfaces theologically?
2. James compares us to a mist that vanishes. What does this say about our lives? How does that make you feel? How does that reality shape how you live?
3. Take a silent moment to reflect on James 4:17. Do you remember a time when you knew what you ought to do and didn't do it?
4. James also says those who are rich will "weep and wail" and experience "miseries." How will this be a response to those who have lived their lives in luxury and pleasure? If we don't want to weep and wail over luxuries, what can we do instead?
5. How does the way you spend your time and/or money serve as a witness to a watching world?
6. Read James 5:4 again. How does the company, business, or profession you work for do with being fair and just to its employees?
7. We've all probably had individuals write letters of reference for us for jobs. It has been said, "nobody gets into heaven without a letter of reference from the poor." Do you agree or disagree with this statement? Do you think this type of letter would be easier or more difficult to request than a regular reference letter?

Working out your faith: During our series on James we've talked about our desire to go to bed looking more like Jesus than when we woke up and about the sun setting with our community looking more like the Kingdom of God than when the sun rose. What is one thing that you can take from our studies on James that will help us to do those things?

Prayer: As your group closes in prayer, please remember the following requests from our church family.

- > Prayers of comfort for the Sumner family in the death of Cheryl's father and the Polley family in the death of Valerie's father.
- > Prayers of healing for Robie Strickland.

Requests from ZPC's May Prayer Calendar:

- > Pray for all students that God help with the stress and worry especially during this time of year.
- > Pray for Bill and Kwai Lin Stephens, ZPC missionaries to Mongolia.

The Monumental with World Vision

Monumental Marathon
Saturday, Nov 3
Nearly 1,000 children under age 5 die every day from diarrhea caused by contaminated water, poor sanitation, and improper hygiene. But World Vision believes this crisis can be solved. They focus on providing clean water and sanitation to everyone in every community they work in. Last year they reached over 4.6 million new people with clean water. ZPC is partnering with World Vision to raise money for clean water through participation in the Monumental Marathon. Visit zpc.org/TWV to join us as a runner.

new director of next gen ministries

We are excited to announce that Elia (e-lee-uh) Mrakovich has accepted the call to become our Director of Next Generation Ministries at ZPC! Elia is a Taylor University grad and has spent the last 4 years working in Greenwood, IN in both children's and student ministries. The Director of Next Gen is charged with leading hands-on ministry to middle school and high school students and working alongside our Directors of Children's Ministries, Amy Crispin and Kristin Lehr. Elia loves kids, has a passion for teaching the Bible, and has experience leading volunteers. Elia is married to Erin, who is originally from Zionsville. He will join the ZPC staff on Monday, May 21. Please join us in welcoming Elia Mrakovich!

Christianity 101 Class | Sundays in June & July | 9 am | Room 202

Do you ever have questions about the basics of our faith or need a refresher course? If yes, join Scott Shelton and other ZPC leaders at 9 am on Sundays starting June 3. Each week we will answer one big question with many parts to it: Who is God? Can we trust the Bible? What is salvation and do I have it? How is it that my identity is in Christ? What is the Church and how does ZPC fit in? No need to register. Just join us!
