WHAT'S COMING UP!

Screwtape Letters Study | Sundays | 9:15 am | Room 208

Join the Thinking Biblically class as they look at C.S. Lewis and his The Screwtape Letters. Each Sunday we will read aloud two or three of these letters and we look forward to moments of interactive dialogue. All adults and middle and high schoolers are welcome.

Spiritual Formation Class | Sundays | 9 am | Chapel

Join this class as they will focus on readings by Evelyn Underhill, who is one of the outstanding modern writers on the interior life. During her lifetime and since her death in 1941 many have found in her writings the understanding they need as they strive to live an inward spiritual life in the Christian tradition.

Ash Wednesday Services | Feb 14 | 12 & 6 pm | Sanctuary

The season of Lent is a time set aside in the church for spiritual renewal and growing in faith. On Ash Wednesday, which kicks off the Lenten season, we seek a fresh start by saying yes to the Lord's invitation to walk with him. Though we bring plenty of baggage on our journey, Jesus reminds us that his yoke is easy and his burden is light asking only that we set our hearts on him. This is the goal of our Lenten season: setting our whole selves – heart and mind, body and soul – in complete trust and utter commitment on the Triune God.

Make plans to join us on Ash Wednesday at 12 or 6 pm. Childcare is available at the 6 pm service for birth through kindergarten.

HOME GROUP QUESTIONS

Week 5 | 2.11.24
Seeing Jesus Anew

Scripture:
Luke 20:1-26

Group Gathering Question:
Jesus answers a question about paying taxes to Caesar. For us, it's about time to gather tax documents and pay our income tax for 2023. Do you get your taxes ready early or wait until the last minute?

Read this week's scripture and discuss:

1. Jesus spends much of his time defending questions from chief priests, the teachers of the law, and elders. How does Jesus handle the question in verse 2? Why do you think Jesus avoided answering the question directly? What do you think the interaction meant for the chief priests, the teachers of the law, and elders?
2. In the parable of the tenants, who do you think the tenants, the landowner, the servants and the son represent? Why do the people react the way they do in verse 16? Where might you see yourself in this parable?
3. James 1:14-15 says, "But one is tempted by one's own desire, being lured and enticed by it; then, when desire has conceived, it engenders sin, and sin, when it is fully grown, gives birth to death." Alan Culpepper sees this as being a theological lens through which to see the parable. How do you see the James passage connecting with this parable?
4. Do you see the culture around you influencing what you desire? If so, how?
5. Read verses 17-18. What is the message of the stone? How do you feel about that message? Why?
6. In Luke 20, Jesus could be one with authority, the son sent to the vineyard, or the capstone (a stone that holds everything together). Which of these descriptions resonates with you? What other images or metaphors for Jesus do you like?
