HOME GROUP QUESTIONS

Week 7 | 2.25.24
Seeing Jesus Anew

Scripture:
Luke 20:41-21:4

Group Gathering Question:
After a long, intense, exhausting day such as Jesus had in Luke chapter 20, Jesus appears to relax and people watch with his disciples in the temple courtyard. How do you relax, unwind, change focus after a long day? How beneficial is it to your health: physically, emotionally, socially, and spiritually?

Read this week's Scripture and discuss:

1. In verses 46-47, why did Jesus warn his disciples against the scribes? How might Jesus' warning about "beware of those...in flowing robes" relate to us today?
2. Jesus often seemed to be more critical of the religious leaders than he was of the "non-religious" folks, of the believers more than of the "not yet believers." Why is that? What might he be saying to us about the way we practice what we preach?
3. Jesus says, "When you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing" (Matthew 6:3). Besides being impractical, what did he mean by that? How true is that for you? Who do you hope sees you (or not) in your giving?
4. It is human nature to be impressed by large gifts, but Jesus points to the woman who gives a small gift telling his listeners, "Be like her." Is there a difference between being "impressed" and being "inspired?"
5. Given your current circumstances and financial plan, could you do what the widow did? Why or why not?
6. Can you think of a time when you gave, or received, a seemingly "small" gift which had great meaning and importance to you?
