the work

- » Build relationships with the local missionaries and immigrants.
- » The field missionaries are flexible with the work we do. It largely depends on the skills we bring to them especially with men on the team.
- » In the past, we have taught English and Spanish, led devotions, games and crafts for women and children, and cleaned in the church.
- » While the missionaries invite women in the market to the next session of classes, we assist and pray for their conversation.
- » We participate in the worship service either through testimonies or helping with the children
- » Prayer walks around the area are also possible.

the trip

- » There is a lot of walking, including stairs throughout the subway, which is our main mode of transportation. Approximately 5+ miles per day.
- » We stay in our apartment in the city.
- » Our meals are either in the apartment or in restaurants.
- » We trust that God will bring together a team who love to interact with people from all nations.
